CONDITIONS OF SALE

ALL BIDS TO BE PER LOT AS NUMBERED IN THE CATALOGUE.

The highest bidder to be the buyer. In all cases of disputed bids the decision of the Auctioneer shall be final.

Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased shall be resold immediately.

Purchases to be removed at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid on or before delivery, in default of which The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible for any loss or damage whatever, but the lot or lots will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.

All lots will be placed on public exhibition before the date of sale, for examination by intending purchasers, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible for the correctness of the description, authenticity, genuineness, or for any defect or fault in or concerning any lot, and make no warranty whatever, but will sell each lot exactly as it is, WITHOUT RECOURSE.

If accounts are not paid and purchases removed within twenty-four hours of the conclusion of the sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, any sum deposited as part payment shall be forfeited, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, reserve the right to resell the lot or lots by either private or public sale, without further notice, and if any deficiency arises from such resale it shall be made good by the defaulter, together with all expenses incurred. This condition shall be without prejudice to the right of this Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale, at its own option.

The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will afford every facility for the employment of carriers and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carriers and packers.

The Anderson Galleries make no charge for executing orders for their customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

521 SIENESE "BUSSOLA" DOOR ITALIAN, EARLY 18TH CENTURY

One of the few remaining examples of a peculiar architectural detail of 18th century palaces of Sienna. These carved doors were placed either halfway up the palace stairs or at the entrance of separate apartments. The carving being cut through the entire thickness of the panel, served as a grill. Dr. Chierici in the Detalo, February, 1925, gives an almost complete list of these doors remaining in the palaces of Sienna, the earliest dating from the 16th century. This bussola was purchased in Sienna some twenty years ago and resembles that of the Archiepiscopal Palace and the Palazzo Sergardi. (Speranza)

535 FELLETTIN PERSONAGE TAPESTRY

FRENCH, SECOND HALF OF 17TH CENTURY

"The Gorgeous Burial of Achilles". Depicted from the account of Achilles' burial in the Odyssey. In the centre of the foreground are draped figures of Flora and Pomona, one holding a wreath, the other carrying a flower basket on her head, a crouching dog at their sides. To the left in the background is a sarcophagus, at which one sees kneeling the youthful figure of Neoptolemus with his head mournfully resting on the sarcophagus cover. In the foreground, Bacchic pipers with wreath-bedecked rams and before them a handsomely shaped amphora. To the right, in armour the kneeling Achilles whose heel has been pierced by the fatal arrow, and warriors in spirited motion. In the distant foreground, a procession with animals of sacrifice and a temple beyond. Continuous border of clustered floral and fruit garlands and in the spandrels pierced flower baskets. In one corner an eagle perched upon a branch. (The upper right hand corner in need of restoration. As is) Size, 9 feet 1 inch x 11 feet 9 inches

536 VERDURE TAPESTRY PROBABLY OF FULHAM WEAVE

ENGLISH, MID-18TH CENTURY

The centre occupied by a Georgian mansion in a park with a pond and bridge. Foreground of tall densely foliated trees with birds perched upon their branches, one a blue bodied swallow-tail with long beak. Handsome border of canopied motifs, birds in hoops, fruit and flower compositions and cartouches, woven in the colours reminiscent of the Renaissance on a soft grey ground. Uncommonly close warp. Size, 9 feet, 5 inches x 9 feet 9 inches
